

About Lodgistics

Lodgistics is devoted to the conservation and preservation of wild and nature-centric areas. Our mission is to furnish these establishments with insights, oversight, and tools, ensuring they remain not only profitable but also sustainable.

We achieve this by harnessing our vast network of seasoned hospitality professionals and companies. This collective expertise allows for an in-depth, bespoke needs-analysis, tailored to every establishment.

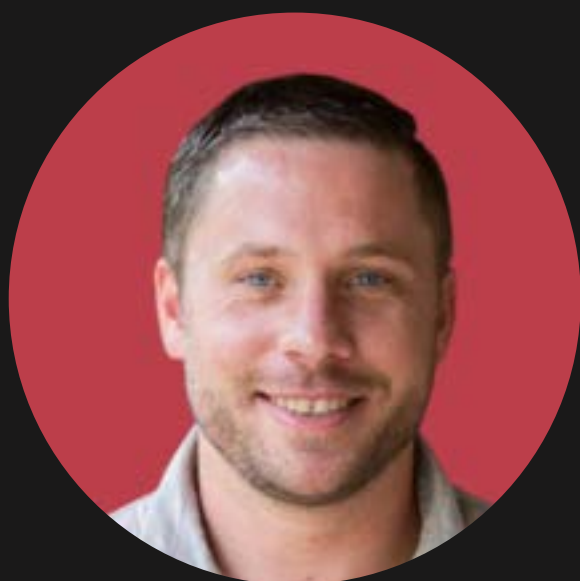

With precise crafting of project scopes and strict adherence to agreed parameters, Lodgistics delivers a first-rate service.

The result is enhanced hospitality offerings, greater output, and, consequently, increased profitability.

Lodgistics offer specialised solutions at the intersection of conservation and hospitality. We aim to transform nature-based establishments into entities that are profitable, streamlined, and distinctively unique.

Meet the Directors

NEIL STEEDMAN

Neil grew up in Kenya and is an experienced and passionate hospitality professional who started at grass-root level and worked his way up through the ranks.

He managed various properties for high-end lodges and large industry names, including Jaci's Lodges, Morukuru Farmhouse, Xigera Camp, and Mombo Camp.

He was also a Project, CAPEX & Operations Manager for Wilderness Safaris and in-country Manager for King's Pool and Duma Tau Lodges.

Neil also steered Motswari's 4 family-owned camps through the COVID recovery period for the Newmark Hotels & Lodges Management Group.

Neil then moved to Qwabi Private Reserve with Newmark and oversaw the opening of the 116 bed Letamo Lodge, and thereafter the opening of the luxurious 50 bed Babohi Lodge.

He is a staunch conservationist, and now consults on all aspects of hospitality to create profitable, sustainable businesses that successfully contribute to the conservation of wild and natural areas.

SEAN VAN DER MERWE

Sean who originally hails from Zimbabwe, moved to South Africa where he became a lead trails guide in the greater Kruger Park and Madikwe Game Reserve. He provided services to a number of award-winning properties, including Molori Safari and Mateya Safari Lodges.

He also became involved in community upliftment and anti-poaching efforts as an Honorary Field Ranger.

He subsequently moved to Botswana where he provided relief management services to Wilderness Safari's Vumburu Plains, before taking on the permanent General Management of Savuti Camp, Duma Tau, and award winning Mombo Camp.

More recently, Sean oversaw the operations of Chem Chem Lodges in Manyara, located in remote northern Tanzania, as well as its NGO.

They both combined their 40 years of experience in nature-based tourism to create Lodgistics, which integrates practical hospitality with conservation requirements.

Their vision is simple and that is to create profitable and sustainable businesses that contribute to conservation
